

Prompt 1: Festival food street vietnam

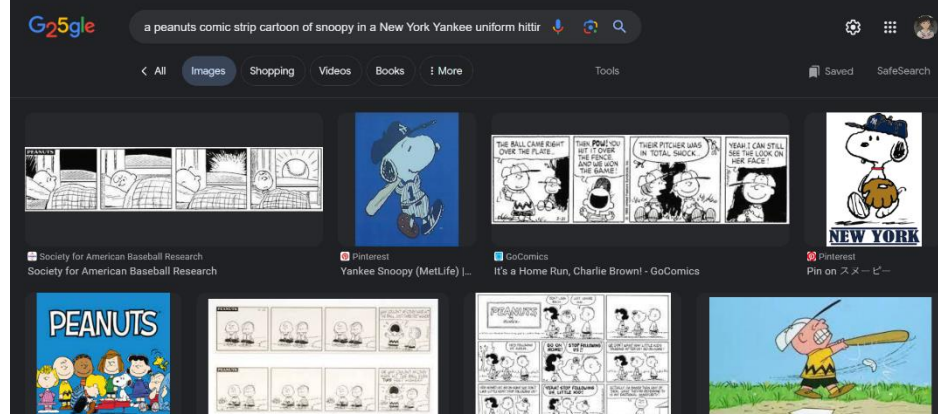

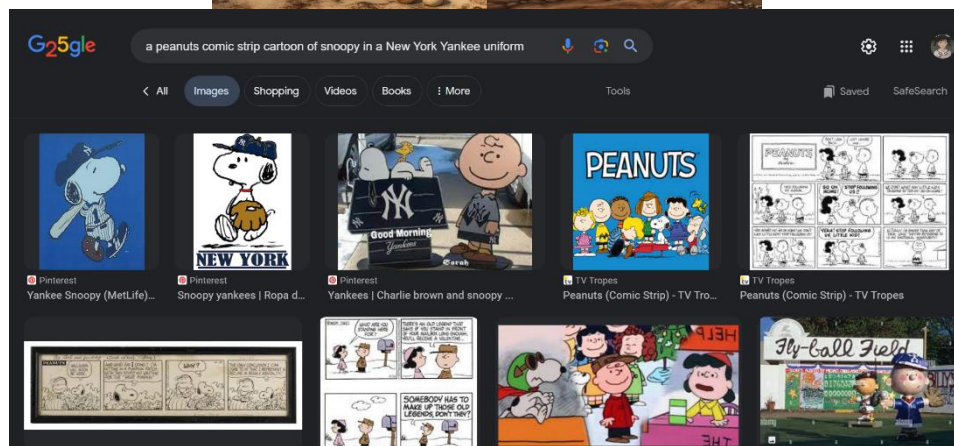

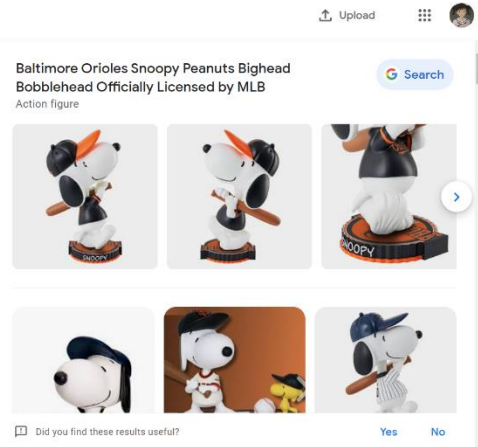

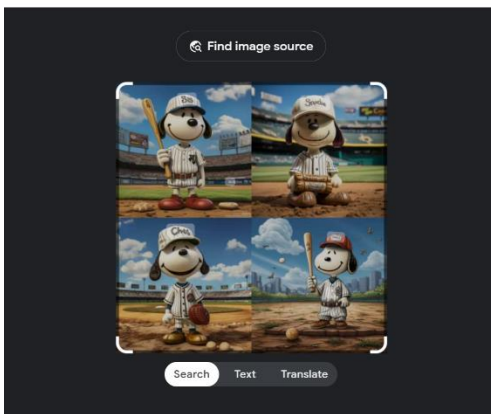

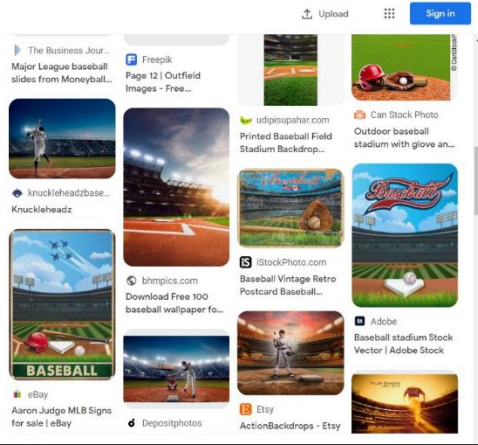

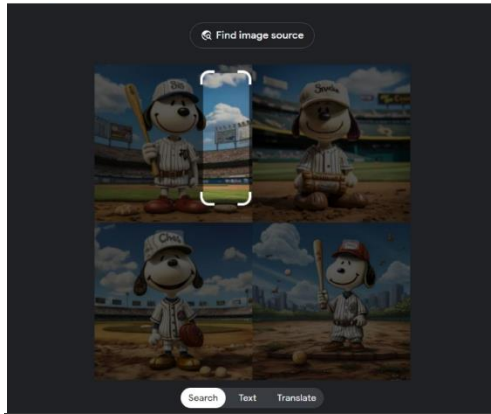

Prompt 2: vintage girl preparing to hit a golf ball with a golf club, she stands absorbed over the ball with her arms straight, holding a golf club that touches the ball, the girl is wearing a short skirt and a pink blouse.

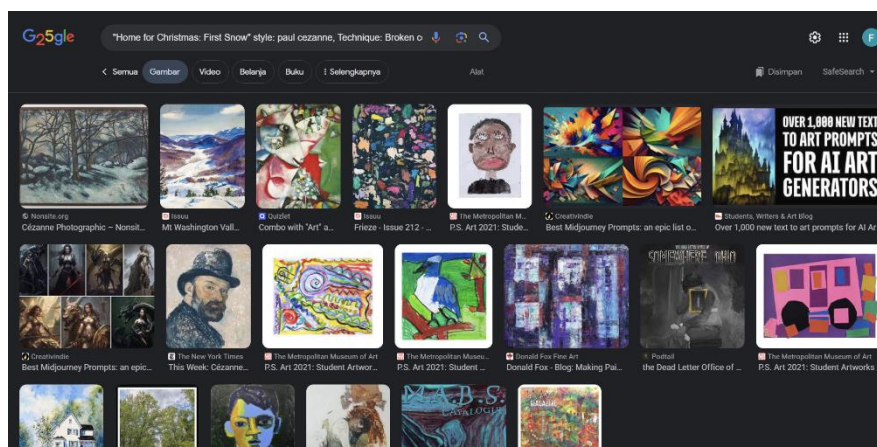

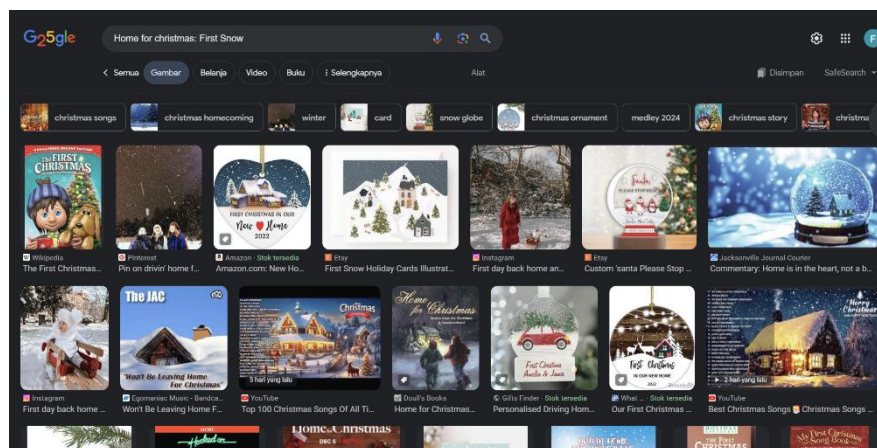

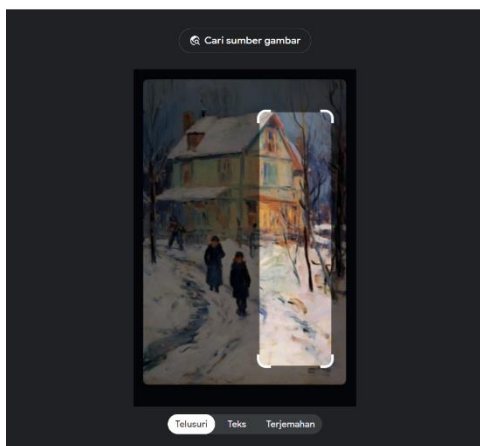

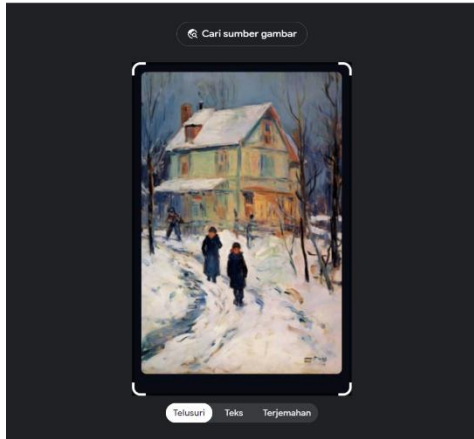

Prompt 3: Create a peanuts comic strip cartoon of snoopy in a New York Yankee uniform hitting a homerun.

Prompt 4: Home for Christmas: First Snow" style: paul cezanne, Technique: Broken color, Scene: Family standing outside as the first snow falls, Camera angle: high angle, Camera lens: wide angle.

Prompt 5: In this funny illustration, you find yourself amidst a lively and colorful stage with a forest. Centered on the stage are seven dwarfs with distinctive personalities and quirky hats and four princesses - Snow White, Sleeping Beauty (Aurora), Mulan, and Jasmine. Each princess is dressed in her iconic attire, but their expressions reflect a mix of confusion, amusement, and determination. Surrounding the princesses are three comically wicked witches. Adding to the chaos, a bumbling fairy with a wand that seems to have a mind of its own hovers nearby. She struggles to maintain control, sending sparks and colorful sparks in every direction. Meanwhile, a sly and cunning fox slinks along the edge of the stage, its eyes gleaming with mischief, while a friendly forest spirit, resembling a whimsical tree, offers a reassuring presence. In one corner, a magical mirror reflects the pandemonium with a sly grin, as if in on the joke. Nearby, Schneeweißchen (Snow White) and Rosenrot look on with their characteristic kindness, eager to lend a helping hand. The entire scene exudes a sense of madcap charm and misadventure, reminiscent of illustrations found in a children's joke book. It captures the essence of a whimsical and unforgettable fairy tale performance that children of all ages would find endlessly amusing.

